

We Build Food Factories. We Also Own Them.

mahabir.group designs, equips and builds food factories across Africa, from feasibility to first packet. We run our own pasta factory in Huambo, Angola, so every line we build for you is built by people who operate one.

We take strategic stakes in the factories we build. We succeed when your factory does.

Why mahabir.group

- 1 We operate before we advise. Our own pasta plant runs in Angola.
- 2 One partner, end to end: feasibility, machinery from vetted Asian makers, commissioning and training.
- 3 Funding support with DFIs, including IDC and DTIC structures in South Africa.
- 4 Skin in the game. We take equity in what we build.

Tell us the food.
We will build the factory.
